

Study the graphic. Then read each question and choose the best answer. Use the provided answer sheet at the end of the workbook to record your answers.

Female Labor Force, 1890-1930

Female Labor Force, 1890-1930

---

1. What can't the reader tell from looking at this chart?
  - A whether the women are married or single
  - B how old the women are
  - C what year the data was taken
  - D the percentage of women who were working
2. Which group of women had the smallest percentage of workers?
  - A married women in 1890
  - B married women in 1930
  - C single women in 1890
  - D widowed/divorced women in 1930
3. Where did the data come from in this chart?
  - A The chart does not tell its source.
  - B The Female Labor Force
  - C Historical Statistics of the United States
  - D Percentage of Working Women
4. Based on these graphs, what conclusion can you make about the change in the workforce from 1890 to 1930?
  - A Women made up less of the workforce in 1930 than they had in 1890.
  - B There were more women working in 1930 than 1890.
  - C Widowed/divorced women were a greater percentage of working women in 1930.
  - D Married men made up the greater percentage of the total work force in 1890.
5. How much of the female workforce was represented by married women in 1890?
  - A about 12 percent
  - B about 29 percent
  - C about 53 percent
  - D about 68 percent